ABOUT ME

I'm a self-taught learner passionate about programming, with expertise in game development and Flutter. My primary goal is to excel as an Android developer. I thrive as a quick learner and value teamwork, finding joy in collaborative problem-solving. My aim is to innovate and grow continually in the dynamic world of software development

PROJECTS

Using Flutter
Android and Web apps
https://github.com/shashank1q/TodoNest

I've dedicated recent months to learning Android and web app development, resulting in two web apps and an Android encryption app. The Android app focuses on file encryption, While the web applications feature comprehensive authentication and data storage through Firebase. while this journey enhanced my skills in CRUD operations, prototyping, code management, and more.

Using Java Swing
Desktop Software
https://github.com/shashank1q/Core

I developed a business management software during my final year of graduation. This software streamlines stock and sales management, offers an integrated messaging system for team communication, and includes a dedicated analysis module for stock and staff performance. It accommodates both staff and admin users, with staff having limited access for sales entry and complaints, while admins have full control.

Using Godot game engine
Android Games
https://shashank1q.itch.io

There are 4 games which I have made in past 2 years. Creating these games help me to learn about various aspects of game development such as Shaders, Vectors, UI, Post processing, State management and using APIs and Plugins.
